Dear Parents and Carers,

Effusive Return

'See, they return'

The manner in which pupils have so effusively settled is humbling. This resonates especially in regard to the Nursery and Reception, with children as young as three years of age demonstrating such ardent endeavour and immersing themselves in the learning opportunities that are afforded. Older pupils, including those who have just joined the school have shone. Attendance across the school is an impressive 97%. This bodes well. The correlation between remarkable achievement and individuals who are so rarely absent is irrefutable.

Autumn and Winter Uniform

Clubs, extra-curricular enrichment opportunities and peripatetic music lessons will shortly resume. From Monday 22nd September, the Year 6 scholars will be attired in the midnight beret and cable knit bobble hat, both of which are, by now, an important element of our autumn and winter uniform. The popular straw boaters will continue to make an appearance but mainly for special occasions. As the weather turns, Thomas Jones scarves, mittens and rain jackets can be purchased from our uniform shop. All pupils should be attired in autumn/winter uniform by the above date.

Reading Together

According to the Met Office, the weather for the weekend is not ideal, with rain forecast. Turning this on its head, one could be forgiven for arguing that these are indeed perfect conditions to find a comfortable spot and immerse oneself in a book. This month, please visit the library whenever possible or a bookshop with your child. Ensure older pupils read a portion of the 'I' newspaper, Sunday Observer or the National Geographic magazine. It is crucial that all pupils quickly recalibrate and commit in real terms to being an active partner in the process of becoming a bold and independent reader.

Yours sincerely,

DM Sellens
