

Whole school evaluation 2019

Summary

Below are some of the findings from the recent whole school evaluation that took place with parents/carers, children, staff and governors.

Children's evaluations

Some positive comments:

'I enjoy school meals because they are organic and healthy.'

'I enjoy maths because most of the time the questions are linear because I have been taught methods.'

'Thomas Jones is like my second home.'

'Our school has an ethos, it is all about being kind and friendly to each other.'

'Children of all faiths, races and backgrounds get along.'

'Thomas Jones is an extraordinary school, mostly because of the teachers who do everything in their power to allow the children to blossom.'

'I have been overwhelmed with ecstasy and joy throughout my seven years.'

'The amount of literature available in our library is fantastic.'

'Whenever I come to this school there's always something to look forward to.'

'Here no apathy is shown, only empathy and warmth.'

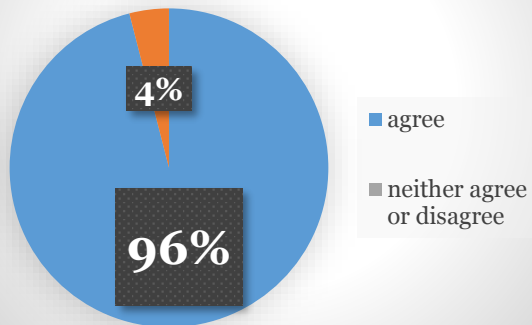

'The teachers always give courage to whoever is shy and help children to be optimistic.'

'At Thomas Jones we are taught to remain humble when we achieve.'

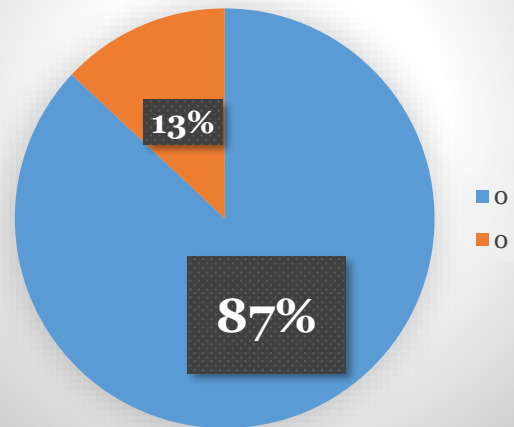

'My wish is that Thomas Jones stays the same. It is perfect just the way it is.'
